This was deferred to the May meeting.

2023 Fish and Wildlife Festival

Vice Chair Fresonke discussed the sponsorship with Bass Pro Shop and his plans for passing out flyers at a boat show. Vice Chair Fresonke went over the vendors he had already contacted, and Commissioner Halbrook forwarded him more contacts to follow-up with. Commissioner Cox and Commissioner Olin also agreed to make contacts.

Mr. Isom suggested having one of the Regional Parks' trailers available to tour. Commissioner Halbrook suggested for Commissioner Franklin's son to be a vendor. Commissioner Fresonke will also reach out to Supervisor Hagman's office to see if he would like to participate.

Mr. Isom inquired about the layout of the event. Commissioner Halbrook recommended to wait on the set up. There was a discussion regarding a possible catfish derby during the event. Mr. Isom stated he will get further direction from Mrs. Davis.

Commissioner Halbrook made a motion to have a Fish and Game Commission booth at the Fish and Wildlife Festival

Second: Commissioner Olin
Abstained: None
Motion passed

Commissioners discussed the possibility of having a cover made with "San Bernardino Fish and Game Commission" written on it. Vice Chair Fresonke will bring this up for discussion at the May meeting.

Business Cards

Commissioner Olin expressed his concerns regarding the business cards. He stated he would like "Regional Parks" removed from the cards. Commissioner Cox disagreed. Commissioner Olin expressed that he doesn't feel comfortable handing out the business cards, because he has nothing to do with Regional Parks. Commissioner Halbrook stated that Regional Parks has taken the Commission under their umbrella. The Commission decided to continue this discussion until more Commission members were in attendance.
